The ‘Shaw 48’ Reading Programme was launched in 2013 to encourage students to establish a habit of reading 10 pages of a book every day, which means 300 pages, equivalent to one book in a month. During the four years of studies, a student will finish reading at least 48 books. The focus of this programme is to cultivate a life-long daily reading habit for personal growth.

Entrant Eligibilities
Full-time undergraduate student of Shaw College (Local, Non-local and Exchange students are welcomed.)

Entry Requirements
- From today until 1 May (Monday) 12:00pm, pick one book from our reading list of Shaw 48 book list (enclosed QR code of Shaw 48 list of reading) and write a book review of 800 words (minimum) in Chinese or English
- Please email the report with your full name, major, study year and student ID to eugenechan@cuhk.edu.hk by 1 May (Monday) 12:00pm.

Remarks
- Each participant can submit at most 3 entries.
- Entries must be original works without infringement of others’ rights.
- The organizer reserves the right to use the entries in any media without payment of royalty to the awardees.

Prizes
- Winner: HK$1,000 book coupon
- 1st Runner-up: HK$800 book coupon
- 2nd Runner-up: HK$500 book coupon

Lending policy
Enquiry: Ms. Eugene Chan (3943 8597/ eugenechan@cuhk.edu.hk)

查詢：陳小姐 (電話：3943 8597 / 電郵：eugenechan@cuhk.edu.hk)