Shaw College
Excellence Awards 2026/27

Introduction

The Chinese University of Hong Kong has a unique tradition of college system which it is proud of. Throughout the past decades, the colleges have indeed played an important role in providing a congenial learning environment as well as quality non-formal education and pastoral care.

Shaw College believes that apart from having eagerness to pursue academic excellence, students must also be versatile in other aspects should he/she want to excel and stay competitive. It is observed that some special skills or talents of students are usually mastered or nurtured during their secondary school days. When students are admitted to the University, the College would like to recognize these talents and provide opportunities for them to show to their fellow students.

Number of Awards and Eligibility

There will be 10 awards in recognition of the above-mentioned. Two value HK$10,000 and the remaining ones value HK$5,000 each. Only first-year students are eligible to apply.

Assessment Criteria

Students are required to have good academic performance in public examinations and also demonstrate their special skills or talents in other aspects e.g. playing musical instrument, public speaking, etc. They should have potential to serve as role model to other students of Shaw College.
