Check-In and Self-monitoring arrangements for 2022/2023

As a large number of students reside together in hostels with shared public facilities, the risk of virus transmission in hostels is considered high. To facilitate the implementation of public health safety measures, the check-in arrangements of residence 2022/2023 for student hostels would be as the following.

A. Check-in Date, Time and Venue

All residents should perform check-in within the period stated below. Application for approval is needed for early or late check-in.

* (Remarks) To ensure a smooth check-in for the residents:
- Summer residents who are offered a hostel place in 2022/2023 MUST perform check-in/out procedures and move to the room assigned for regular term on 17 Aug 2022.
- Summer residents who are NOT offered a hostel place in 2022/2023 MUST perform check-out on 31 Aug 2022.
- For those who do not perform check-out procedures by the stipulated deadline, their personal belongings will be discarded and the hostel deposit will not be refunded. The record will be kept for consideration of application for a hostel residence in the coming year.

B. Check-in Procedures

1. Upon the announcement of room allocation on 16 August 2022, residents should complete the online “Check-in Record Form”, and submit the form before the designated deadline. The expected check-in date should be selected. The link of the online form will be attached on the room allocation notice.

2. Residents should present their CU Link cards (or HKID cards) to the reception counter on your selected check-in date.

3. Hostel staff will pass room keys and “room check list” to residents.

4. Residents should bring their luggage to their rooms and return the room check list to hostel staff after checking all listed items in the room.
5. Residents who need to collect their stored luggage can go to the reception counter during office hours: 9 am to 1 pm or 2 pm to 4 pm. Unclaimed luggage will be discarded after the stipulated deadline.

6. Residents may approach the reception counter of the hostel if a free parking coupon (for 2 hours) is needed.

C. Others

1. Student hostel regulations and infection control measures: Residents must observe the Shaw College student hostel regulations and infection control measures at hostels.

2. All residents must comply with the latest requirements of the "the Vaccine Pass" in order to gain entry to the University campus. Information regarding the dosage requirements and other elements of the scheme can be found on the government website.

3. If residents need to carry out self-monitoring on campus, please refer to the Appendix attached for details.

4. Entering the hostels: Students need to use CU Link card to enter the hostels. To facilitate the implementation of public health safety measures, residents are only given door access to their own residing block. NO visitors are allowed.

5. Hostel Place Arrangement: Allotted hostel places are not transferable or changeable. If you wish to give up your hostel place, please provide your full name, student ID number and contact number to shaw-student-hostel@cuhk.edu.hk by 11 Aug 2022. Applicants who would like to give up their places after checked in the hostel must apply to wardens in writing. Vacant places will be filled up by applicants who are on the waiting list. Applications for withdrawal from hostels must be submitted at least 7 working days in advance of the planned last date of stay. Latest check-out dates are 1 October 2022 and 1 February 2023 for first and second term respectively. Once the applications have been approved, applicants are required to pay one-month hostel fee. Residents check out after the two dates mentioned above will be required to pay hostel fee counting from the check-in date to end of the relevant terms. Details and application forms can be obtained at the information counter of the hostel you reside.

If any enquiry, please send email to shaw-student-hostel@cuhk.edu.hk.

Student Hostels, Shaw College

29 July 2022
In accordance with the most updated information from the University, students who are fully vaccinated and satisfy the government requirements may carry out self-monitoring on campus. Shaw College will make the following arrangements for those students.

Self-monitoring Arrangements

1. Residents returning to Hong Kong from the following areas, and staying at Shaw hostels in 2022/23 are accepted to carry out the self-monitoring in Shaw student hostels. For students who are assigned to International House (I-HOUSE), please contact I-House directly for the arrangements.
   (a) Guangdong Province or Macao via Return2hk Scheme / Come2HK.
   (b) Other area except for 1(a), who have completed the compulsory quarantine off campus stipulated by the Hong Kong government.

2. Residents who need to carry out self-monitoring in Shaw student hostels must complete the registration via the following online registration form ON or BEFORE 14 August 2022 at 11:59pm.

3. Residents of 1(a) must provide the confirmation of the successful booking of the Return2HK Scheme / Come2HK and the negative COVID-19 PCR test report/result conducted at community testing centers set up by the Government or recognized laboratories within 96 hours before check-in.

4. Residents of 1(b) must provide the proof of the completion of the Quarantine and furnish a negative COVID-19 PCR test report/result within 96 hours before check-in to the hostels.

5. After checking in to the hostel, the PCR test result on the 12th day of arrival at Hong Kong must be submitted by email to shaw-student-hostel@cuhk.edu.hk.

Due to the fluidity of the pandemic, policies and requirements for inbound travelers may change frequently. Please visit the HKSAR government webpage regularly for the latest information https://www.coronavirus.gov.hk/eng/inbound-travel.html. Shaw College will update the arrangements as appropriate and when required according to measures announced by the University and actual needs. If you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to email us at shaw-student-hostel@cuhk.edu.hk.

Thank you very much for your understanding and cooperation!
